Yearbook of the

WACHUSETT REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL

Senior Class of 1956

Dedication . . .

AT THE CLOSE OF THESE FIRST TWO YEARS

OF THE WACHUSETT REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL,

WE LOOK BACK WITH PRIDE UPON ALL THAT HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED.

ONE OF THE CHIEF INSPIRATIONS BEHIND THE SUCCESS OF OUR NEW SCHOOL

HAS BEEN OUR ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL.

WITH THE HELP OF HIS GUIDING COUNSEL AND SYMPATHETIC UNDERSTANDING,

WE HAVE ATTAINED UNITY OF SPIRIT AND A HIGH STANDARD OF ETHICAL CONDUCT.

IT IS, THEREFORE, WITH DEEP ADMIRATION

AND SINCERE GRATITUDE FOR HIS UNTIRING EFFORTS

THAT WE, THE MEMBERS OF THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1956,

DO DEDICATE THIS YEARBOOK TO OUR ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL,

MR. CHARLES B. JOHNSON.

Class History . . .

I think it's time to look through my bookcase again.
It has been a long time since I browsed through the pages of my old books.
Let's see now, Dickens, Longfellow . . . what is this hidden behind my volumes of Shakespeare? Why it's the history of the Class of 1956, Wachusett Regional High School. What fun it will be to look back on my high-school years!

ON September 8, 1954, our new adventure began, We entered the new high school, which we all had watched grow from a skeleton of bare steel and concrete to a beautiful, modern school building.

All one hundred and sixty-three of us were completely lost for the first few weeks, running from one end of the building to the other in order to find our classes on time. We discovered that everyone was having the same problem, so we had some consolation. It wasn't long before classes began to run smoothly as we became accustomed to the routine.

Before long, football was in full swing. Now we had a chance to develop our school spirit by cheering for our team. Tryouts for cheerleaders were held, and in the final selection one of our junior girls, Lois Sargent, was chosen a member of the cheerleading squad, with Barbara Anderson and June McGuiggan as alternates. They helped the team to a successful season. Some of the junior boys who made the team were Charles Darling, Joel Decker, Melvyn Gray, Harold Lane, Robert Miles, and Harry Taylor.

While the football team was achieving success, the hockey team was also making a good record. This was due partly to the fact that our own Connie Baker, Sally Fletcher, Joan Forsell, Beverly Johnson, Shirley Johnson, and Eleanor Reed served on the varsity.

As soon as we had become acquainted with most of our classmates, elections for class officers were held. The procedure included the filing of nomination papers, campaigning, the holding of primaries, and the final voting. We elected as president, Robert Miles; vice-president, Harry Taylor; secretary, Beverly Johnson; and treasurer, Ronald Fournier. Our advisors were Mrs. Olson, Mr. Eaton, and Mr. Menard.

Next our thoughts turned to basketball. Joel Decker, Stephen Howe, and James Wright were our stars on the varsity team. Sally Fletcher, Joan Forsell, Beverly Johnson, and Shirley Johnson were our contributions to the girls' team, which had an excellent season.

The junior girls further demonstrated their skill in athletics when the badminton championship of the school was won by Sally Fletcher and Marie Speckman.

By this time we began to feel more at ease with the other members of the school. Dances were held after some of the basketball games, and a few record hops were sponsored by different classes. On the evening of March 18, we sponsored a junior movie with the proceeds going to the class treasury.

Finally spring arrived, and we began anticipating our biggest social event of the year — our Junior Prom. We all worked hard decorating the gym in a carnival theme. Music was furnished by Johnny Cutler's orchestra, and everyone had a gala time dancing the night away.

Class Day was a very proud occasion for the junior class for it was announced that our own Melvyn Gray was the recipient of the Harvard Award.

Two boys from our class, Robert Miles and David Cook, attended Boys' State and one girl, Myrtle Tremblay, attended Girls' State.

With final examinations the first school year of the Wachusett Regional High School came to an end.

On September 7, 1955, one hundred and fifty-five seniors entered the familiar halls again. As seniors we were determined to make this the best year ever.

During the latter part of our junior year we had chosen as president, Melvyn Gray; vice-president, Robert Miles; secretary, Carol Ann Cooke; and treasurer, Ronald Fournier. This year our advisors were Mrs. Creamer, Mrs. Jean Williams, and Mr. Frechette.

The football team was comprised mostly of seniors, as was the hockey team. Both had successful seasons.

A Student Council was organized with Harold Lane, president and Charles Darling, vice-president. Although this organization is new in our school, it has already done many things which benefit the student body.

When we returned to school after Christmas vacation and found ourselves writing 1956 on our papers, we began to realize how few were the months of school left to us before graduation.

Our Variety Show was held on March 16. Many members of the class participated, helping to make it a success. The proceeds were for the benefit of the senior class.

The Senior Play, "Life With Father," was presented on April 17 and 18. Those participating were John Price, as Father; Lois Sergent, as Vinnie; and Lawrence Cushman, Harold Lane, Dennis Moore, and Earle Boynton, as their sons. Althea Barton played Mary Skinner, and Leatrice Stoddard was Cora. The Reverend Doctor Lloyd, Doctor Somers, and Doctor Humphreys were played respectively by Ronald Fournier, Walter Gove, and Jeffrey Cunningham. Eleanor Reed was seen as Margaret, and Cynthia Sperl, Mildred Bond, Marie Speckman, and Judith Judkins played the parts of the maids.

At last we reached the final stepping stone of our high school career. June arrived and with it, graduation! As we left the halls of Wachusett, we carried with us many pleasant memories of the happy times spent by the Class of 1956 at Wachusett Regional High School.

What a pleasure it has been to recall my high school days. I must leave this book near the front of my bookcase so that I'll be reminded to read it more often.

Class Will . . .

We, the unsurpassed intelligentsia of the fair class of one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six, being of remarkable mind and body, do hereby set down our Last Will and Testament.

Article I

Item 1 — Upon the "We're the party type" juniors we bestow our outstanding scholarship record as proof that it can be done.

Item 2 — To the "All the teachers adore us" sophomores we leave our rule-book full of hints as to how to become the perfect senior class.

Item 3 — To the "Tee, hee" future sophomores we leave nothing because they think they have everything. You'll learn, kids!

Item 4 — Upon the Class of 1960 we bestow our most extraordinary memory that they may find their way easily around the school next year.

Article II

Item 1 — To the "We simply hate to lose you" faculty we leave our endurance to help them get through another year like this one.

Article III

Item 1 — Tom "Don't call me Red" Berube leaves his red hair dye to Sue "I use peroxide" Anderson.

Item 2 — Ed "Anybody want to argue?" Frost bestows his ability to express his thoughts easily upon next year's president of the senior class. He'll need it!

Item 3 — Bob "I left my homework in my other book" Bluis leaves his tousled curls to Gene "My butch grows so darn fast" Carlson.

Item 4 — Dick "I'm a member of the Ivy League" Brunelle wills his Prom bermudas of '55 to Dean "I'd better wait until next year" Coe.

Item 5 — Sondra "I forgot my excuse" Burleigh bequeaths her ability to catch a cold on just the right days to Karen "I write my own notes" Manty.

Item 6 — Charlene "Bang-fight! Boom-score! Bang-win!" Slayton bestows her strong right arm upon next year's drummer.

Item 7 — Whitner "Hey, I got an A" Parker departs, thankful that he finally made it.

Item 8 — Donnie " Are these my legs?" Prouty leaves his magic grow-an-inch-a-week formula to Diane "My dad's 6' 2" " Plante.

Item 9 — Paul "What'll it be?" Stewart bequeaths his position at the Holden Pharmacy to Bill "I only work there to watch the girls go by" Mooney.

Item 10 — Barbara "How do I know?" Manchester leaves her ready smile to Betty "I don't believe in going steady for more than two weeks" Fogg.

Item 11 — Kendall "Anywhere you say" Tupper wills his success in getting the family car any time he wants it to Bud "I'm the boss at our house" Amidon.

Item 12 — Rufus "These Shakespearean plays get me" Cox departs, thankful that he could afford Classic Comics.

Item 13 — Lois "Give me a 'W' " Sergent leaves her position as cheerleading captain to any girl who can stand the strain. Right, Lois?

Item 14 — Donnie "Did we bring the warm-up jackets?" Follansbee wills his position as football manager to Harold "I've got everything" Vickory.

Item 15 — Marie "Smash" Speckman bequeaths her badminton technique to Debby "I prefer the overhead clear" Martin.

Item 16 — Roger "Want to buy a candy bar" Lojko leaves his profit-making six-cent candy bar business to next year's business managers of the Yearbook.

Item 17 — Paul "I play the organ" Adams wills his love of music to Bob "I prefer the piano" Burrows.

Item 18 — Peter "Alias Dr. Jekyll" Lajoie bestows his love of science upon the women in the cafeteria so they can "cook up" some new menus for next year.

Item 19 — Maurice "What did I do now?" Letourneau leaves his proclivity for getting into and out of trouble to the whole freshman class. Divide it fairly, and there'll be enough for all.

Item 20 — Jack "Well-uh-in my opinion" Davis bequeaths his ability to talk his way out of anything to the kids in Miss Schoff's senior English class next year. But we bet they don't make it!

Item 21 — Dennis "I didn't hear the question" Moore wills his collection of wisecracks to the faculty so they'll know how to cope with the "younger generation."

Item 22 — Carol "Oh m'gosh" Wright leaves a challenge to anyone who thinks himself capable of out-talking her.

Item 23 — Ida "I work in White's" Hammond leaves her part-time job to Joyce "I scored only twenty points this afternoon" Larson.

Item 24 — Walter "I'm the quiet type" Gove bequeaths his easy-going manner to Franny "Anyone looking?" Jennette.

Item 25 — Harold "I eat everything and anything" Johnson leaves his love of food to all the girls who wish they didn't love it.

Item 26 — Marie "Let's run to lunch" Bonin bestows her quick pick-up upon the track team.

Item 27 — Harry "Grandpa" Taylor leaves his football padding to Eddie "I'm going to play varsity" Jameson.

Item 28 — Paula "I think this is an important point" Ross bequeaths her ability to get along with the teachers to Beth "My homework is here somewhere" Hull.

Item 29 — Bill "Me tease anyone?" Peeso leaves his book on one thousand and one ways to tease girls, which has been handed down from generation to generation, to Ed "I'm a big boy now" Renaud.

Item 30 — Ruth "I'm going steady" Mattson bestows her loyalty to one boyfriend upon Pat "Don't tease me, Buddy" Hiney.

Item 31 — Sally "I belong to the Grange" Harrington leaves her timid but friendly smile to Sally "I'm bashful" Steele.

Item 32 — Barb "They just think I'm quiet" Maenpa leaves her deceiving nature to all the members of the Pep Squad who gave the school so much spirit at the games.

Item 33 — Jack "I'm really not professional" Price bequeaths his ability to act to Allegra "Do you mean you would have me jump into the well?" Johnson, who played opposite him.

Item 34 — June "Want me to yodel?" Horstman leaves her love for horses to Jane "I've got my license" Putnam.

Item 35 — Joe "Now let's patch up this misunderstanding" Zoppo leaves his nice complexion to Cynthia "Peaches and cream" Pearson.

Item 36 — Buzz "Hi-ya, there!" Storey bestows his friendliness to everyone upon Carol "I'm just happy-go-lucky" Majewski.

Item 37 — Brian "Can I talk to him for a minute?" Shields leaves his way of getting around teachers to Judy "We study together, activity periods" Clark.

Item 38 — Charles "Quiet and peaceful" Latowne leaves his good nature to Marilyn "Want to hear another one?" Flagg.

Item 39 — Milton "Square dancing is much better" Clark leaves his love of the country to Marilyn "New York City is where I'm going to live" Lundquist.

Item 40 — Charles "I got that picture" Fiske leaves the school camera to the incoming photography class and hopes they have as much fun with it.

Item 41 — Ethel "Silence is a virtue" Kirkpatrick leaves her red hair to Sandra "My hair is really blonde" Jacobson.

Item 42 — Beatrice "Meet you down in the science wing" Peterson leaves her beautiful class pictures to all the incoming seniors, who will hope theirs come out as well.

Item 44 — Dick "Whhaat d'yaa saayy?" Johnson leaves his slow, shuffling feet to Rick "I drive a Buick" Arnold.

Item 45 — Virginia "I like Worcester Tech" Smedberg bequeaths her driver's license and car upon her "partner in crime" Georgie "Can I come?" Pruneau.

Item 46 — Joyce "I'm the quiet type" Fiske bestows her shyness and quiet manner upon Bob "I know all the answers" Hughes.

Item 47 — Nancy "The quiet girl" Martelli leaves her deceivingly quiet manner to Elaine "I was quiet on the way down; may I talk on the way home?" Anderson.

Item 48 — David "I'll get there" Landgren leaves his sleepy ways to Vinnie "What's doing tonight?" Keough.

Item 49 — Dan "What did I do?" Helle leaves his genius for getting on the teachers' nerves to Janet "Who, me?" Lofgren.

Item 50 — Barb "I'm engaged" Ferrandino leaves, making sure to take her diamond with her.

Item 51 — Ed "Sharman made twenty-nine points last night" Ruddy wills his mania for basketball to Kendall "Maybe I'll play varsity next year" Cross.

Item 52 — Nancy "Oh, my goodness" Petterson bequeaths her bashful smile to Diane "It's hard to decide" Smith.

Barbara "Do you think this will be the last time we'll have to do this over?" Anderson and Joan "I hope so; I don't have any more ideas" Forsell do hereby end this glorious manuscript. Signed, sealed and delivered on the seventh day of June in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six.

Class Prophecy . . .

Twenty-five yeors have elopsed since the Closs of '56 of Wochusett Regionol High School tearfully bode forewell to the sacred halls of leorning.

It is June, 1981, ond a big doy for Holden. This booming metropolis is to be the site of the onnuol Davy Crockett Rifle Club Convention. The convention is to be held in the Skywoy Hotel, owned ond operated by Edward Buck ond Alan Roseen. The Skyway, the largest and most modern hotel in the country, feotures thot exciting new invention woll-to-woll floors, creoted by George Davis. We walk in to where registration is going on outside the convention hall and encounter none other thon Joan Petitti, now a world-fomous pops singer. As we are pinning on our Dovy Crockett membership pins, we almost bump into Dianne Yingst, who has become well-known for her one-woman orchestro, in which she plays everything from drums to the violin. With her is, of course, Polly Seeyle, now known for perfecting the first electronic noodle-moker. Time has not pulled these two oport, try os it may. As these girls chat, our attention is turned to four other girls who have come in. Helaine Heinold, Judy Hoyle, Carol Zuranski, ond Carol Klojzy have realized their life-long ambition and hove entered the garboge-collecting business together.

Over in a corner we see Ken Clarkson and Tom Dellasanta tolking ond joking together. Ken is internationally known for his one-cylinder, 500 horse-power Kiddie Car, while Tom has received wide recognition for his wolf cortoons. Another—but what hove we here? Thot sleek-looking figure in block is none other than Bob Cameron, the best-known motorcycle racer in the country. With him is Barry Shepard, also known for motorcycle racing. Because of these two, this sport hos replaced baseboll as America's number one sport. As Bob and Borry ore besieged by outograph collectors, we turn to follow three familiar, fast-moving figures os they leave the convention holl. They are soon identified os Leatrice Stoddard, Barbara Studley, ond Geraldine Showers, oll stors in the well-known television series, "Secretories Can Be Cheerful." They ore going bock to their rooms to freshen up, so we re-enter the lobby. There we come upon Marilyn Parsons, the most celebroted Hollywood star since Lassie, with her manager, Robert Mason. Chatting with Morilyn and Bob is Ray Gallant. Roy has made his second successful trip over Niogora Folls in a barrel and is now moking plons to try o third trip in o bottle.

We leove these three olone in the lobby and walk to the elevotor, where we ore greeted by Anthony Plante. Anthony is the designer and operator of the world's most ultra-modern elevator, which hos red plush corpets, super-foom cushions, ond built-in television. The elevotor starts on its way to the 999th floor. Our first stop is the 267th floor, where we take on Mildred Bond, newly elected president of the Wochusett Mountain Grange, ond Judy Judkins, the outgoing president. Cynthia Sperl, perfector of the skinless bonono also gets in on this floor. At the 586th floor we pick up Lois Gustafson, Hulda Nelson, and Faye Murray. Lois is now working in the United States Mint, where she mills the edges of new dimes. Huldo is doing well modeling the new colorless lipstick and fingernail polish created by Foye. We are just obout ready to continue our ride when we are met by a very strange sight. Ruth Lindberg is chasing Barbara Maine and Sally Ruchala down the hall with on empty perfume bottle. It seems that Borbara ond Sally, spies for a well-known perfume compony, hove run off with Ruthie's formula for odorless perfume.

Leoving these three to settle their problem, we proceed to the 999th floor, where the convention is about to begin. Richard McKinstry, founder and president of the Dovy Crockett Rifle Club, opens the meeting, wearing the lotest coonskin cop and carrying the lotest Davy Crockett rifle. After uttering a few Davy Crockett bird calls, he introduces his copoble secretory, Barbara Marsh, who is responsible for the latest fad — Davy Crockett Bermuda shorts.

Looking oround the convention hall, we see several familiar faces, such as that of Sigmund Matis, who is now the owner of an ultro-modern super morket, which he calls the "B and Q." Nearby is Charles Darling, now o professional wrestler and known as "Charles Fotless." Charlie has won his lost ten matches and credits a great deal af his success to his manoger and coach, Gordon White, whom we see seated beside him. A few seats down, we spot Bernard Tourigney, who is now rewriting Shakespeore's plays and presenting them on the stage. Bernie takes great pride in his musical-comedy version of "Mocbeth," which he has renomed "G-Clef." Patricia Wirths has been o great help to Bernie and is also gaining much recognition in her role of Lady G-Clef.

Forther down we see Mirrless Underwood, Holden's only womon doctor. Mirrless hos just discovered on amazing new medicine for which there is no disease. Seated neor Mirrless is Bob Miles with his secretary, Janice Lamarine. Bob has been engoged in scientific exploration all over the world, bringing back rare plants and animals. He is now making plans to go to the Dead Seo in seorch of live fish. Janice travels with him and keeps a record of all his explorotions.

Spotting a lock of red hair, we soon identify it as belonging to Walter Lapointe, o world-famous chef in one af Americo's leading restourants. Wolter has recently perfected his newest creation — spaghetti that winds itself around the fork. With him is Fred Helle, a struggling electronics engineer, who is trying ta get enough money ta have his latest invention, the pocket television set, put an the market.

In front of these two we see Beverly Gallant and Althea Barton. Beverly is in the process af writing ond illustrating a new boak, the title of which is "Clealand Fiddled While Wachusett Burned." Althea is working for Holden's newspaper, "The Hot News Weekly" and writes her own column, which she heods "Tomorrow's News Today."

We look up just in time ta see Kenny Johnson enter the convention holl. Ken hos eorned a big name for himself by cooching world champion cheerleaders. It seems that Kenny showed a decided interest in cheerleading in high schoal and decided to pursue this interest in loter life. He takes a vocant seat, and to our surprise we discover that he has seoted himself beside two of his former classmates, David Bruce and Clealand Blair. Chotting with these two, we find thot Dove is now playing professional bosketball for the world-famous "Bloadclotters" and Clealand, who gave us mony o laugh in high school, is now training earnestly to become a seriaus comedian.

We leove these three, os we find thot the entertainment is about to begin. The first oct is that of Arthur Godfreak, formerly Arthur Pentilla. Arthur is known all over the country for playing the "Eleluku" (ukulele spelled backwards) with his feet. Of his many friends, he brought only Nola Harding with him. Nola, now a singing sensation, entertains us with a few of her hit recardings, the best one being her very lotest, "The Great Bartender."

Marcia Smith presents a most unusuol oct with which to conclude the entertoinment. She has done wonders with a troupe of blind fleas and naw has them performing on the trapeze without spider webs beneath them. This act brings forth a scream from one af the wamen in the audience. Joyce Flanagan, a copable yaung nurse, rushes to her aid and brings her out of her faint. Joyce, incidentally, hos just created o new vitamin pill, XYZ^2. The woman, we discover, is none other than Carole LeDuc, a fomous clothes designer, who had just returned from a tour of Europe with her movie producer husband, Richard Burns.

All good things come ta a close, however, and we look with dismay upon the break-up of the convention, for we realize that we may never again see so many of our former classmates together. At the same time, however, we are happy with the thought that at least we have had this shart glimpse of them. We ore both proud and happy that the annuol Davy Crockett Rifle Club Conventian was held in Wachusett's hometown. We never imagined thot the symbal of the Mauntoineers would ever bring us such fame.

Drama Festival

The preliminary competition of the Massachusetts Drama Festival was held at the Wachusett Regional High School March 23-24. Nine high schools were represented — St. Mary's (Southbridge), Major Beal, Bromfield, Windsor Mountain, Gardner, Marlborough, St. Mary's (Milford), Charlton, and Wachusett. Wachusett's selection, Sunday Costs Five Pesos by Josephina Niggli, was chosen to be among the four plays to compete in the state finals in Boston April 6-7. Along with nine other participants from the different high schools, Allegra Johnson as Berta, John Price as Fidel, and Sandra Smith as Salome were given certificates for their superior acting. In Boston, Wachusett was ranked fourth in competition with seventeen other schools.

The Romanum Forum

The Romanum Forum (Latin Club) is under the supervision of Mr. Ernest Frechette. This club is associated with the Junior Classical League. Its members are Latin students maintaining a high scholastic average in Latin. Officers are Sandra Newton, President; Mary Oliver, Secretary; and Linda O'Janne, Treasurer.

The club presented a Roman Banquet on April 4. William Buker, Superintendent of Schools; Gordon Thomas, Principal; Charles Johnson, Assistant Principal; and teachers of the language department were guests of honor. The freshman members acted as "slaves." All present were attired in Roman togas, the typical dress in ancient Rome. The eating and serving of food was done without the use of table utensils. Festivities were opened with a speech by Sandra Newton, President. Entertainment was provided during the meal.

When school opened in September, the varsity football squad had already been submitted to a week of gruelling calisthenics. The varsity squad was comprised of about thirty-five boys. The first test of the team came at the Football Jamboree at Northbridge. Wachusett tied Ashland in the blazing heat. The first game of the regular season was against Classical. It was scheduled for a Saturday afternoon; however, rain, which proved a constant headache throughout the season, caused the game to be postponed until the following Monday. Classical proved herself to be too strong for the plucky Wachusett eleven and the game ended with Classical ahead, 20-0. Next Wachusett was invaded by the "Wildcats" from Gardner. Although Wachusett layed a great, inspired game, Gardner walked off the field victorious. On the following Saturday Wachusett paid a visit to Westboro and finally got into the win column via a last-minute touchdown pass from Decker to Amidon. The rest of the season was a mixture of rain and mud. One game with Millbury was cancelled completely. The smaller Wachusett eleven, although always fighting, went down to defeat against Southbridge, Uxbridge, and Auburn and tied Notre Dame in a tense 6-6 defensive battle. The season ended with one win, five losses, and one tie, but the record doesn't tell the whole story. The Wachusett eleven never gave up. To manifest such a spirit is almost as important as winning.

The varsity made a great choice when they elected seniors Mel Gray and Charlie Darling as their captains. Both played a bang-up season. The varsity squad consisted of ten seniors. Besides Mel and Charlie there were Ken Johnson, Harry Taylor, Bobby Miles, Joel Decker, Jeff Cunningham, Barry Shepard, Dave Bruce, and Hal Lane. All the seniors received their varsity letters in recognition of their fine play during the season. The teams wish to take this opportunity to express their sincere thanks to two "swell" people — W. R. H. S.'s coaches, Mr. Huntington and Mr. Ream!

VARSITY

Basketball . . .

How can anyone summarize a basketball season that was spent in holding one's breath? And that is just about how exciting the Blackstone Valley League was this season. How can anyone capture the excitement felt when Franny Jennette split the net with a last-minute basket to nip Shrewsbury by one point? Is it possible to put down in words the pandemonium that reigned after Tommy Blomfelt threw in two foul shots to edge Auburn by one point in the last ten seconds? Is it possible to describe the disbelief that registered in the eyes of every Wachusett rooter when Westboro beat us by two points in two overtimes?

The basketball season of '55-'56 was an exciting one. Captained by seniors Steve Howe and Joe Decker, the Mountaineers served notice from the start of league play that they were going to be a tough team to beat. The team swept four games from Auburn and Shrewsbury and went on to beat Shrewsbury again in the opening round of the Clark Tourney. And although Wachusett ended the season in second place behind a great Northbridge team, the Mountaineers piled up a highly respectable 13-7 season's record. In truth there wasn't one game that was "in the bag." All the teams in the B. V. L. had good material, and even the weaker teams were a big threat.

Besides Joe and Steve, the senior class was represented by Mel Gray, Bob Bluis, Buzz Storey, Tom Blomfelt, and Dave Bruce. All the seniors turned in a great job for the Wachusett team. On the varsity squad Buddy Amidon and Franny Jennette also played great ball. The way the J. V.'s looked this year it appears as though Wachusett is going to be a basketball power for years to come. Mr. Sell, who coached the varsity, and Mr. Harrity, coach of the J. V.'s, both guided their teams to places of high recognition.

INTRAMURAL CLUB OFFICERS

The Girls' Intramural Organization was formed in May, 1955, to give those girls unable to serve on varsity or junior varsity teams an opportunity to enjoy the experience of team participation. It strives to promote good sportsmanship, improve athletic skills, and encourage new acquaintances. The 1955-1956 program included tournaments in basketball, volleyball, and badminton. The club maintains a weekly bulletin board on good sportsmanship, grooming, and manners. Officers of the club for 1955-56 were President, Sally Fletcher; Vice-President, Beverly Johnson; Secretary, Dot Mayo; Treasurer, Joan Forsell. Miss Costa's enthusiastic support as advisor has been a major factor in the establishment and success of this organization.

The Girls' Varsity Hockey Team ended its 1955 season with a victorious record of four wins, three ties, and one loss. Although hampered by a wet field, the team showed unusual spirit and unity under the leadership of co-captains Joan Forsell and Beverly Johnson. The team upheld its excellent defensive record, having only one goal scored against it.

Seniors playing their last season for Wachusett were Connie Baker, Christie Donway, Sally Fletcher, Joan Forsell, Beverly Johnson, Shirley Johnson, and Eleanor Reed. These experienced players have been the core of the team not only in 1955 but also in past seasons. The responsibility of maintaining the Wachusett girls' victorious record rests with the many athletic underclassmen and the able coaching of Mrs. Moulton.

The Junior Varsity Team, coached by Miss Costa, finished the season with a record of two wins, one tie, and two losses. This team, with Lois Ruggles and Faith Wheeler as co-captains, showed promise of producing many future varsity members.

Carolyn Zottoli, Betsy Robinson, Sandra Newton, Shirley DeLuca, Paula Lindgren, and Judy Grover, managers for the 1955 season, should be given much credit for keeping the teams running smoothly.

The Wachusett Girls' Varsity Basketball Team, under the leadership of co-captains Sally Fletcher and Beverly Johnsan, completed the season with a recard of twelve victories and one defeat. Seniars wha cantributed much ta the spirit ond unity of the team in their last season were Solly Fletcher, Jaon Farsell, Beverly Johnsan, and Shirley Johnsan. Mony underclassmen, including Jayce Larsan, Caral Majewski, and Grace Tambolleo, shawed autstanding obility, and promise a bright future for the Wachusett team.

The Junior Varsity team, with Pat Hiney and Dat Maya as ca-captains, achieved a record of seven victaries and three defeats. Several members showed promise of becoming future vorsity team members.

Much credit far the success of the teams should ga ta Mrs. Maulton, the Varsity Team caach, and Miss Kuninski, the Juniar Varsity Team cooch, for their understanding and skillful guidance, and to the managers — Cannie Boker, Caral Anne Caoke, Sue Graham, Eleanor Reed, Jay Wasson, and Carol Ann Watts — far their ca-operation.
